NEW YEARS NEWS!

A.D.O.P.T. Pet Shelter & Blessed Bonds Combine Forces to Save More Lives!

I am very excited to announce that Blessed Bonds will be ringing in the NEW YEAR in a new home. It will continue to thrive and grow as a program of a 20 year old progressive no-kill animal shelter in Naperville that finds homes for homeless dogs and cats. Animals Deserving Of Proper Treatment (A.D.O.P.T.) has provided us with low cost spay-neuter of our foster pets since January of 2010. We will continue to need your support as we expand the program and help more pets. Please check out A.D.O.P.T.'s website at www.adoptpetshelter.org and please join Blessed Bonds at any one or all of their holiday events. Celebrate our new home, have some fun, & know that you are helping our furry friends.

PETS SPEAK UP ABOUT THEIR REUNIONS...

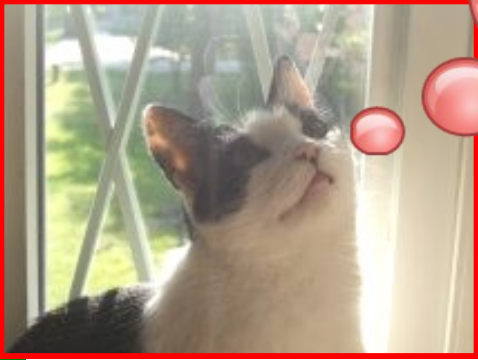

My name is Dagmar. My mom needed knee surgery and a place for me to stay. I can be nice -but to be honest, also a little stubborn—some say “challenging.” I appreciated my foster mom, Denise —but I want to go home!

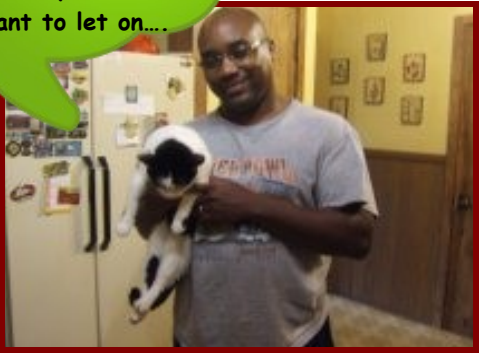

5 weeks later, I am sooo happy To be back with my mom! I know, I don't exactly look overjoyed —but that is just because I want you to hurry up and take the picture so I can have some quiet time to let my mom know how happy I am to be back and let her know I was well-taken care of while she was recovering.

I am Pretty the cat, Here I am —enjoying my foster home but waiting for Dad to come and get me and bring me back to my family

Here I am with my Dad. He is so happy to see me and he is thanking the foster mom and dad, and I am so happy to see him —but you know, I don't want to let on....
